

Kim Parker

Date : January 23, 2015

Kim Parker
Photo by Garth Woods

Skip Wilkins and I return to present an entirely new evening of material ranging from Steve Kuhn and Dave Frishberg, back to Tom Waits and Cole Porter. We have really mined some gold this time.

Our process is extravagantly simple: When we're both in town, we get together once a week and try to thrill each other. Almost every tune we bring passes our unspoken test.

Though our collaboration may be relatively brief, Skip and I each bring many decades of loving "just good tunes". Skip is a wonderful pianist, but he is also a singer and brings a singer's sensitivity to his accompaniment. He's got me down!

If you'd enjoy an evening listening to songs that are rich, rewarding and lovingly handled by two seasoned performers, please help make it a special night and join us at the Deer Head Inn on January 30th.